AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE OBTAINS NEW LECTURER

Logan, March 15.—Prof. J. H. Linford, director of the agricultural college summer school, has obtained Dr. J. M. Gillette, head of the department of sociology of the University of North Dakota, as a special lecturer on rural sociology for the coming summer school session. Dr. Gillette will give twelve lectures, which will be open to all students.

Dr. Gillette is the author of two books dealing with sociological problems, "Constructive Rural Sociology" and "The Family" and frequently contributes articles along these lines to periodicals. He is president of the child labor commission of North Dakota, director of the State Historical society and a member of a number of educational associations.

During his visit to the St. Paul convention last winter Dr. George Thomas met Professor Gillette and pronounced him a man of broad culture and pleasing personality and a strong personality and a strong lecturer.

The college summer school will open June 1 and will run for six weeks. Because of this early opening, courses will be concluded before the warmest weather. A strong aggregation of the regular college faculty will be retained to give courses in agriculture, agricultural engineering, home economics, mechanic arts, commerce and general science.

Credits received for courses pursued make toward a degree and also are accepted by the state board of education at their face value.

SUE COMMISSIONERS FOR REFUND OF MONEY PAID

Price, Utah, March 15.—A complaint has been filed by C. C. McWhinney, county attorney, against three county commissioners, charging that their actions in paying O. C. Nelson, an attorney, $850 attorney's fees were illegal and not within bounds of their authority and demanding judgment, and 8 per cent interest on the amount. The complaint cites Benton Randolph, W. T. Hamilton and J. R. Sharp as county commissioners. Mr. Randolph is under bonds for $5000 given by D. V. Mikkelsen, Neil M. Madsen and T. H. Thomas. Mr. Hamilton for $5000 by the American Surety company of New York, and Mr. Sharp for $5000 by the Illinois Surety company.

The amount of $850 was made up of seven or eight payments ranging from $50 to $100, each of which was for services of Mr. Nelson and Allen T. Sanford of Salt Lake in cases against gambling, etc. It was claimed by the county commissioners more than a year ago that Mr. McWhinney refused to prosecute cases and as considerable friction resulted the commissioners took the initiative and secured the services of other attorneys, with the assertion that since the county attorney refused to do his duty and aid them they had a right to retain special service.

Since then matters have been strained until a short time ago, when Hill, a taxpayer of Sunnyside, preferred charges against McWhinney, and Sheriff Kelter, claiming neglect of duty.
